BULLETIN

Eleventh Street Sluggers put the Avalons permanently in the softball league cellar position yesterday afternoon when they trounced them over the diamond to a 15 to 2 victory.

Winning pitcher was Jim Cassingham. Short score for the game was 2 runs and 8 hits for the Avalons and 15 runs and 11 hits for the Sluggers.

UPPERCLASS PARTY AT 4

Seniors and juniors will get together in an upperclass picnic and playday at Roosevelt Junior High school this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when class rivalry will be forgotten for a time.

The party is being planned and sponsored by the junior class. Marie Kurle, council member, is chairman for the affair. She has arranged for the use of the swimming pool and gym for afternoon sports, and has scheduled an evening picnic in the glen as the climax of the day's activities.

Members of both classes may come at their convenience. All students attending should bring their own lunch, towels, and swim suits.

12-Piece Orchestra Scheduled To Play At Senior Ball

Frank Beazely and his 12-piece orchestra will take the band stand position at the Senior Ball June 17 from 9 to 1 o'clock in the main dining room of the Hotel Sainte Claire.

Beazely's band also played both sweet and swing at the Spardi Gras dance last month. He is from San Mateo. One of their featured numbers is an arrangement of "Long Ago and Far Away." The 12-piece band also includes a vocalist.

In the next few days bids will go on sale for $2.50 including tax. Only seniors may buy them during the first week they are on sale; later they will be sold to the whole student body.

The ball will be a formal affair. Men will wear tuxedos, but may also wear dark suits if they desire.

"This is the biggest affair of the Senior class, and as the whole student body is invited, we are hoping to make it the biggest success of the college year," states Gerry Reynolds, chairman of the ball.

Leola Conklin, in charge of decorations, announces that bids and decorations will carry out the "Silver Ball" theme. Decorations will consist of silver stars and spring flowers.

ASB PICNIC AT ALUM ROCK TO PRECEDE FINALS

One more Student Body party before the onset of finals is being planned by the Social Affairs committee. This student get-together will be a second Alum Rock park picnic, to be held on Friday, June 16.

From 4:30 until 10:30 on that date, students may forget their studies and have a good time at the hay ride and combination picnic dance, say committee members. Bohnett's wagon, filled with hay, will be used to take picnickers to the park and back.

At the park Spartans may swim in the park pool, hike, play games, dance, or just eat. The hall will be rented for dancing, and records will be used for music.

Park food concessions will be open so no picnicker need bring his own food unless he wishes to.

Further plans for the picnic will be made at today's Social Affairs meeting at 4 o'clock in the Student Union. All members are requested by committee head Anne Buxton to be there.

ASB ELECTIONS FOR COUNCILORS, COURT POSTS TOMORROW

Officers Chosen Will Be Installed Recognition Day

Final student body elections will be held tomorrow from 8 to 5 o'clock in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium. Elections will be for all ASB officers except the four executive officers elected last week.

Freshmen members of the Student Council will be elected at the time of the mid winter class elections next year. All officers will be installed at the Recognition day assembly Thursday.

Monterey Presidio Paper Features Revelries Cast

Have you seen the latest edition of "The Jeep," Presidio of Monterey's weekly paper? San Jose State guys and gals are taking up most of the front page space.

It seems the soldiers at Monterey really appreciated the Spartan musical-variety show that visited their camp. Pictures of the whole cast and a show review appear in the paper.

The publication may be seen in the Dean of Women's office or in the Spartan Daily office.

RECOGNITION DAY DATE IS CHANGED TO JUNE 8; CLASSES EXCUSED AT 10

Recognition Day will be Thursday, June 8, instead of Friday, June 9, as previously announced, according to Student Councilors in charge of the program.

Classes will be excused at 10 o'clock for the assembly to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium. All students are urged by Mary Lou Montgomery and Wilma Sableman, co-chairmen for the program, to be at the meeting.

Hobo Picnic To Top Off Red Cross Day Wednesday

Culminating a day of sewing in the Red Cross room, the AWA Hobo picnic will be held Wednesday in the rear Quad, with all San Jose State college women students invited to attend.

Jeanette Owen will act as mistress of ceremonies for the program which will include singing by Jewgie Haddock, accordion solos by Sandy Warfield, and vocalizing by the Five Delts. Pat Dunlavy and Pat Keating are co-chairmen on the program committee.

First on the program following the introduction by ASB president Jane Reed Graham will be the legalizing the name of the MacFadden Health cottage. A vote will be taken to change the name from Edwin Markham Health Cottage to MacFadden Health Cottage.

Newly elected Student Body officers will be installed at the meeting and this year's Student Court and Student Council members will receive their keys. Council members will present merit awards to the students most active in student activities during the year.

Ten scholarship awards, the Spanish and Commerce awards, and Phelan contest awards will be presented. At the meeting, the new Black Masque and Spartan Spears members will be introduced to the students.

RECOMMENDED BUDGET COMPLETED BY COUNCIL AT MEETING YESTERDAY

Budget recommendations for the year 1944-45 were completed at yesterday's Student Council meeting. The tentative budget will be examined by the Council next year and any changes made which the members decide are necessary.

The budget will go into effect after its acceptance by the Student Council next year and its approval by President T. W. MacQuarrie and a committee of administrative advisors.

Few changes over the budget for the past year were made in forming the new estimate. No funds were recommended for the use of the Rally committee. The total amount tentatively allotted for use next year is $17,686, an increase of $433.50 over last year.

Next week's regular meeting of the Student Council will be an open one at which the newly elected Student Council members are invited to be present.

The revised by-laws to the constitution will be voted on at the meeting Monday, which will be the last of the quarter. These documents have been on the desk since the acceptance by the students in general of the revised constitution. Last changes were completed at yesterday's meeting.

Among the reports heard at the meeting were Recognition day award recommendations and the Fifth War Bond drive arrangements given by their respective chairmen.

Fifth War Bond Drive Begins Friday

San Jose State college will enter the Fifth War Bond drive this Friday, June 9, when two campus organizations, Ero Sophian and Kappa Kappa Sigma, combine their talents to start the campaign off to a rousing start.

For six days Spartans will have an opportunity to participate in the drive, investing in as many war stamps as their budgets will allow. Quota for the Washington Square campaign has been set at $25,000.

General chairman of the drive is Howard Riddle. It is being sponsored by the Student Council.

Each day of the drive will be handled by a set of campus organizations under the chairmanship of a representative from each. A meeting of these day business managers will be held on Thursday, the day before the start of the campaign in the Student Union, states general chairman Riddle.

The lineup of groups taking part in the drive is as follows: Friday, June 9, Ero Sophian and Kappa Kappa Sigma; Monday, June 12, Delta Beta Sigma and Beta Chi Sigma; Tuesday, June 13, Zeta Chi and Sappho; Wednesday, June 14, Allenian, Beta Gamma Chi and Kappa Phi; Thursday, June 15, Phi Kappa Pi and Theta Mu Sigma; Friday, June 16, Spartan Spears and Veterans.

Deserved Bouquets

It's easy to throw brickbats, but it's a trickier process to throw bouquets without going overboard, when one hears a behind the scenes story of good deeds well done without fanfare.

A case in point concerns personnel of the Health Cottage, who have been making outstanding efforts to maintain this vital health service to students. For instance, in addition to regular duties, Mrs. Ernest Hockenbeamer, supervising nurse, has mowed the lawn, tended the garden and washed windows at the Cottage because of the manpower shortage. Mrs. Hattie Wright, the cook, and Mrs. Hockenbeamer both, have exercised common sense economy and good management, so that expenses were materially reduced.

When it was discovered that no nurses could be found to work in the cottage, the wives of several doctors volunteered to take over the duties. Among those who have lent their time and talents are Mrs. Jack Vogelmann, Mrs. Alvin Williams, Mrs. Pierce Barrett, and Mrs. Charles Ianne. Mrs. Mary De Feo is the regular night nurse, who has included extra duties in her program too.

Someone spoke of student spirit being high this year, and we heartily agree that, in general, Staters have been on the beam. But even in the face of the fact that the Health Cottage staff is paid for its work, the group still deserves bouquets, a handshake and a salute for being instrumental in continued health service for our student body.

ED MARION IS LEADING SLUGGER IN SOFTBALL TEAMS; MAUGHMER NEXT

With averages complete up to, but not including, yesterday's game between the Avalons and the Eleventh Street Sluggers, the Daily has compiled the list of leading bastmen. Obviously these averages are in no way comparable to seasonal averages in full-scale leagues, in which players must compete in a far greater number of games.

person are co-chairmen for the entire affair. Other members working on the party are: Carmendale Fernandez, publicity chairman; and committee members Bobbie Jo Fields, Elaine Chadburne, Betty Jean Jurras, Pat Cavanagh, and Betty Regan.

The game committee is headed by June Robertson, and those working with her are Audrey Backenstoe, Betty Doyle, Roberta Ramsay, Joanne O'Brien, and Yvonne Welch. The invitation committee members are Dorothy Herger, chairman; Kay Goepfert, and Jo Ann Sweeney.

Eleanor Fammatre Hay is chairman of the food committee, which is composed of Adel Acido, June Storni, Pat Dunlavy, and Marilyn Wilson. The food for the affair is a "mystery" and committee members refuse to divulge the menu for the party.

Dean Dimmick has lauded the idea of working in the Red-Cross room by saying, "This work is vitally needed, so it is necessary that the girls continue their excellent job." She cited several instances when the work done by the San Jose State college unit has been praised both by Red Cross officials and by men in the service.

Dorothy Jane Henderson, co-chairman for the picnic, offered the suggestion, "Join the gang in the Red Cross room, and then join the Bums' Rush to the Hobo picnic!"
